NOTIFICATION.

No. 2.—In connection with the selection of Indian candidates for admission to the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, with a view to their qualifying for King's Commissions in the Indian Army, it is proposed to hold an entrance examination in India in the 2nd September 1923, for the term commencing at Sandhurst in February 1924. The following information is published for the use of intending candidates:—

(1) Candidates must be between the ages of 18 and 25 on the 1st January 1924 and must state their age definitely.

(2) Candidates are required to furnish a declaration which must be signed by their parents or guardians, to the effect that it is their intention to make the Army their permanent profession.

(3) Candidates must be prepared to pass a qualifying examination the detailed syllabus of which is printed as an appendix to this notification. The general educational standard required is that prescribed for the diploma of the Clifton College, a school-leaving certificate recognised by a Local Government, the Matriculation examination of an incorporated University or any higher examination.

(4) Candidates will, in addition, undergo a special test consisting of an aptitude examination conducted on similar lines to the Admiralty Test for the Royal Naval College. This examination which is designed to test the intelligence and general knowledge of candidates will be conducted by a Board of officers.

(5) A medical examination, according to the standard laid down in Appendix 18 of the Regulations for the Army Medical Service, 1918, will also be held in India. Candidates should attach to their applications a medical certificate from a competent medical officer to the effect that they come up to the standard mentioned above.

(6) The cost of a first-class railway fare from their homes and back will be granted to candidates attending the medical and qualifying examinations in India.

Candidates finally selected to join the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, will also receive the cost of one first-class fare from their residence to the port of embarkation, in India, and a first-class passage by sea to England.

Applications for railway fares should be made to the Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor of Madras.

Passages by sea for candidates selected for admission to the college will be arranged by the Embarkation Commandant, Bombay, under orders from Army Headquarters.

Selected candidates will be sent to England in charge of a British officer, who will be appointed by Army Headquarters and who will meet the candidates at Bombay. Each candidate will hand over to this officer at Bombay the sum of Rs. 500 to cover the cost of expenses incurred during the voyage to England.

(7) The ordinary fee for cadets at the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, for two years are as follows:—

(9) The above estimate does not provide for European kit or travel in England other than the amount required for college uniforms; for the purchase of European kit an additional sum of from £100 to £200 should be provided. Neither does this estimate include anything for the cost of outfit on being commissioned from the college.

(10) The Local Government will recover from parents or guardians practically its advance at the beginning of each year of the Endowment except out-half of the total estimated expenditure for two years and pay it into the local Treasury with full details in each case and with instructions that the moneys should be passed to the Secretary of State for India through the account of London Account Current. No cadet will be allowed to procure a term at the College until the fees for that term have been paid.

(11) An allowance of 4s. a day, in aid of the expenses of reading, writing and other necessaries, will be admitted as a charge against the pocket money so long as he is in residence at the Royal Military College. All other stationary expenses which cannot be covered by the allowance shall be chargeable to the parent or guardian of a cadet.

(12) If a cadet is absent a whole term in consequence of sickness, a payment of £10 shall be required in lieu of the half-year's contribution for the privilege of his name being kept on the rolls of the establishment, and for a vacancy being kept open at the commencement of the next term.

(13) If a cadet is mutilated or removed during a term, his daily allowance shall cease from the date of such mutilation or removal, and the contribution made for the half-year shall be forfeited, unless otherwise specially directed by the Army Council.

(14) If a cadet is absent from school during a portion of the term, his allowance shall continue to be issued and credited to his account. In exceptional cases a refund of the contribution for the period of absence may be authorized by the Commandant, and in such cases the cadet's allowance shall cease for the period of the refund.

(15) Indians selected for cadships will be subject to such rules and regulations as are, or may be, from time to time, established for the maintenance of good order and discipline at the college.

They will, while at the Royal Military College, belong to the cadship College Mess and no special serving arrangements can be made on their behalf.

Indian cadets are required to appear at all times in the gaiters of the college except when on leave or when otherwise exempted by the Commandant, but they will be allowed to wear their national head dress should they so desire.

They will not be allowed to take servants or personal attendants of any kind to the college.

(16) One of the rules for admission to the Royal Military College is that a cadet should be unmarried. This rule will be waived in the case of Indian candidates, but in no circumstances will a cadet be allowed to take his wife or family to England.

(17) The normal length of the course of instruction will be about two years divided into four terms. The college terms will be—

Spring term.—From about beginning of February to about middle of July.

Autumn term.—From about beginning of September to about middle of December.

The interterm periods will constitute the vacations.

(18) Cadets from India will have to qualify in the ordinary passing-out examinations and will, on qualifying, be eligible for King's Commissions. Before being issued a fit for a commission, they must be certified to be in good mental and bodily health and free from any physical defects likely to interfere with the performance of their military duties. Those who are successful in obtaining commissions will enter the Indian Army as Second Lieutenants.

(19) Unless a Government building is available, candidates will be provided with private accommodation, usually in a hotel at Simla. Candidates will be charged the amount, but the cost of the rent of the quarters will be borne by Government. Suitable arrangements will be made for those candidates who are precluded, by caste, from using the hotel provided.

Candidates may arrange for quarters in the hotel other than those provided, but they will be liable for any additional cost incurred. Candidates will on no account be allowed to live elsewhere.

Parents or guardians must ensure that candidates are provided with sufficient funds to meet the cost of their expenses while in Simla.

(20) The Private Secretary to His Excellency the Governor of Madras, to whom applications should be made not later than 31st August, will interview the selected candidates the day of their selection. No application received after the 31st August will be considered.

No. 104.—The following provisions of the Government of India is republished:—

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION, HEALTH AND LANDS.

AGRICULTURE.

Sluik, No. 2164 June 1923.

The Government of India have had under consideration for some time the provision of degrees of study qualifying for admission to the Indian Agricultural Service.

Offices entering this service generally belong to two classes:—

(1) The general (or agricultural) branch comprising such posts as Deputy Directors of Agriculture, Professors of Agriculture in the Agricultural Colleges, etc.

(2) The specialized branches such as Chemistry, Entomology, etc.

While excellent facilities exist at the Agricultural Research Institute, Pusa, for a complete training in Chemistry, Entomology, Agronomy, Botany, etc., the facilities for obtaining a corresponding good post-graduate experience in practical agriculture have, owing to a variety of reasons, among which is the general backwardness of agriculture in the country, not hitherto been available.

(3) A degree or diploma of a recognized University or Agricultural College.

(4) Experience of practical agriculture on an up-to-date farm.

India at present possesses five well-equipped agricultural colleges in the provinces teaching up to a standard similar to recognized institutions abroad, but facilities for obtaining a correspondingly good post-graduate experience in practical agriculture have, owing to a variety of reasons, among which is the general backwardness of agriculture in the country, not hitherto been available.

At a conference held at Pusa in February 1922 it was decided that the only satisfactory alternative to sending young Indians abroad for this experience was the institution inside the country, of courses in special branches of practical agriculture leading to graduate or diploma of the Provincial Agricultural Colleges offering at least as good opportunities as exist elsewhere. Annual lectures and agency, agricultural engineering, and plant industry were suggested as suitable branches of practical agriculture for post-graduate training and it was recommended that a six months' course in each of two of these branches be considered equivalent to the usual practical experience gained abroad in seeking for qualifications for the Indian Agricultural Service.

It is the intention of the Government of India to establish a complete course of the type as now conducted by the experience at Pusa, when funds permit. For financial reasons they are unable to start a complete course in agricultural engineering at once, but they hope as a very early date to be in a position to institute a course in agronomy. They have decided to begin with a course in actual husbandry and farming coupled with a special course in agriculture at Pusa which will be modified or altered at the Provincial Agricultural Societies who have put in at least two years' service in the local agricultural departments. Local Governments are being invited to recommend a place for this course. The introduction of three of the Military Dairy Farms to the Agricultural Department will provide the latter with nearly all the equipment necessary for a course in the subject and offers an opportunity of working as well as with the course. In view of the delay involved in the inauguration of the other proposed courses, the Government of India have decided to accept as a provisional measure a three months' course in actual husbandry and experience in two six months' courses in the other branches and, previous to open the first course next odd session at the Dairy Farm at Bangalore under the Imperial Dairy Import and the Physiological Chemical in charge of Animal Husbandry, Entomology at Pusa under the Imperial Agronomist. Applications for participation as to syllabus, fees, etc., should be made to the Director, Agricultural Research Institute, Pusa. It is not expected that the tuition fees will exceed Rs. 25 per pupil per annum.

No. 105.—The following resolution of the Government of India is republished:—

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

EXPORT.

Sluik, No. 2165 July 1923.

No. 2165.—On February 18th, 1923, the following resolution was adopted by the Legislative Assembly:—

"That the Assembly recommends to the Governor-General in Council—

(a) that he accept in principle the proposition that the fiscal policy of the Government of India may significantly be directed towards favouring the development of industries in India;

(b) that in the application of the above principle of protection, regard must be had to the general needs of the country and to the present dependence of the Government of India on export, import and transit duties for a large part of its resources;

(c) that the principle should be applied with discrimination, with due regard to the salubrity of the community and to the safeguards suggested in paragraph PT of the Report of the Federal Fiscal Commission;

(d) that in order that effect may be given to these recommendations, a Tariff Board should be constituted for a period not exceeding one year in the first instance, that such Tariff Board should be purely an investigating and advisory body and should consist of not more than three members, one of whom should be a Government official, but with power, subject to the approval of the Government of India, to co-opt other members for particular inquiries.¹²

2. The Government of India have decided to appoint a Tariff Board, for a period not exceeding one year in the first instance, to carry out the investigations resulting from the acceptance of the resolution and to make recommendations thereon. The following gentlemen have agreed to serve on the Board:—

President:

G. Bailey, Esq., C.B., C.I.E., I.O.S.

Members:

The Hon'ble Mr. V. G. Kala, Professor of Economics, Ferguson College, Poona.
P. F. Gwynn, Esq., M.L.A., Bombay.

Bai Mahadev S. B. Bhatari, Assistant Secretary, Commerce Department, has been appointed Secretary to the Board.

3. The Government of India will submit the information to be taken up for investigation and preparing the order of the inquiry and it will be the duty of the Tariff Board, after such examination as it thinks necessary, to make recommendations regarding the protection (if any) to be extended to these industries and the nature and extent of the protection. Facts or figures (other than those referred to in the next paragraph) relating to the industries in which they are interested shall be investigated by the Tariff Board should apply to the Secretary to Government of India in the Commerce Department. With their applications they should send up a full statement of the reasons why they consider that protection should be extended to the industry.

4. The Board will assemble immediately at Shimla. As recommended by the Fiscal Commission in paragraph 127 of the Report, the Board will examine first the question of extending protection to the manufacture of steel in India. In considering this question, the Board will take into account the effect of any recommendations it may make on industries dependent on the use of steel, and in particular, it will consider how its recommendations will affect the industries referred to in paragraph 128 of the Report of the Railway Industries Committee, and whether these industries should be restricted protection. Facts or figures referred to in the steel industry or the industries dependent on the use of steel, who desire that their views should be considered by the Tariff Board, should address their representations to the Secretary to the Board.

The headquarters of the Board will be with the Government of India, but it will work from time to time commercial and industrial centres in India for the purpose of the investigations which it may be required to undertake. While the steel industry in India prospers, the steel of the Board will be located temporarily at Calcutta. For the investigation of other industries, it may be necessary to transfer the office from time to time to other convenient places.

5. The Government of India trust that Local Governments and Administrations will afford the Board all the assistance which it may require and will comply with any request for information which may be addressed to them by it.

Letter from A. T. G. CROFTON, Esq., C.E., L.R.S., Acting Secretary to Government, Local Self-Government Department, to the Agent, Madras and Southern Mahratta Railway, Madras, No. 4280-S, L. & M., dated 26th March 1923.

[Pigskin tax—very short.]

With reference to correspondence ending with your letter No. M. 2637-1, dated 21st October 1922, I am desirous to inquire whether the following arrangements will be agreeable to you:—

(1) In cases where the tax is levied permanently throughout the year, the amount of the tax will be added to the railway fare and printed on the pigskin ticket, but if in any case the Government is not given at least three months' notice of the levy of the tax or of the abolition of the tax or of a change in the rate at which the tax is to be levied, the cost of replacing any existing stock of tickets or of altering any existing stock of tickets may be recovered from the proceeds of the tax in addition to the percentage which may be deducted under the rules now in force. Three months' notice is suggested with a view to enable the Railway Company to use up any existing stock of tickets.

(2) Where the tax is levied temporarily, special tax tickets will be printed and supplied by the Railway Company to stations for issue along with ordinary tickets. The cost of these special tax tickets should be defrayed by the Railway Company. In view of the fact that the Railway Company receives a higher percentage, where the tax is levied temporarily, it appears reasonable that the Railway Company should bear the cost of the special tax tickets.

Copy of letter No. M. 2637-1, dated 21st June 1923, from the Madras and Southern Mahratta Railway Company, Madras.

[Pigskin tax.]

With reference to your No. 4280-S, L. & M., dated 26th March 1923, I have the honour to state that the Railway Administration is prepared to agree to submit the tax at the following rates:—

Permanent tax on inward and outward passengers.	These are part of the tax plus the cost of replacing tickets. As the ticket stock at every station will be adjusted, it will be impossible to replace stock on any definite date and whether the stock, some time will be involved.
Temporary tax, outward only.	Actual printing charges plus a fee of Rs. 100 and 5 per cent on the cost of collection.
Temporary tax, outward and inward.	Actual printing charges plus a fee of Rs. 100 and 5 per cent on the cost of collection. When the notice given is so short that special arrangements must be notified by way, the telephone charges for such notification at the public rate or be included with the printing charges.

As small fares where the tax is levied on inward and outward passengers, the printing charges may be a considerable percentage of the collection; for example at Secunderabad:

	Total collection.	Printing charges.	Percentage.
	Rs.	Rs.
Secunderabad, 1922	247	34	14 outward and inward.
Aditya Park, 1922	276	41	15 outward.
Secunderabad, 1922	346	59	17 outward and inward.

As the Madras railway budget of 1923, the notice given was so short as to necessitate telegraphic orders to foreign lines. The value of the telegrams sent (Rs. 275-13-6 at public rates) exceeded the whole amount collected. These items are not in the accounts of the Railway as the general ledger will be to reduce traffic, and in view of the fact that the cost of collection at small stations may be in all proportion to the value of the tax, it is considered essential that the Railway be protected by increasing ticket costs for as many times as possible.

From F. H. HARRIS, Esq., C.E., L.R.S., Acting Secretary to the Government of Madras, to the Agent, Madras and Southern Mahratta Railway, Madras, No. 1837, L. & M., dated Port St. George, 11th July 1923.

With reference to your letter No. M. 2637-1, dated 21st June 1923, I am to state that the Government agrees to the arrangements suggested therein for the levy and collection of pigskin tax by your administration.

UNIVERSITY OF MADRAS.

NOTIFICATION.

EXAMINATIONS IN CANDIDATES APPEARING FOR THE BACHELORSHIP IN SCIENCE IN SEPTEMBER AND OCTOBER 1925.

Candidates for University Examinations are required to observe the following instructions very carefully—

1. Serial tickets should be received in the examination room.
2. Candidates should take their places in the examination hall at least five minutes before the time fixed for giving out the papers. Candidates presenting themselves more than half an hour after the appointed time will not be admitted to the examination hall. Candidates who are satisfactorily suffering from infectious diseases of any kind will not be admitted.
3. Candidates should bring with them to the examination hall each day of the examination their hall tickets for signature by the Chief Superintendent.
4. Candidates are prohibited from writing upon their hall tickets or question papers. Candidates are also prohibited from writing their names in any part of their answer books, but their signature must be written very distinctly in the outer corner of each. Entries in their regular answer books may involve the rejection of answer papers.
5. Candidates are not allowed to exceed the time assigned to each paper.
6. No candidate will be allowed to leave the examination room till the expiry of at least half an hour after a question paper has been given out; and no candidate who leaves the room during the period allotted for a paper will be allowed to re-enter within that period.
7. Candidates are forbidden to ask questions of any kind during the examination. They are further forbidden to communicate with the examiners; should they do so, their answers will not be valued, and their conduct will be reported to the Syndicate for disciplinary action.

8. Candidates are not allowed the use of books of any kind (except as provided in rule 9). They are also prohibited from introducing into the examination room any book or portion of a book, data, manuscript, or paper of any description; from communicating with or copying from each other; and from communicating with any person outside the examination room. Any candidate detected in the violation of these rules will be punished at the rate of four marks, and his conduct will be reported to the Syndicate. The use of scientific or University examination books is permitted except in the subjects answering papers in Mathematics. The use of mathematical instruments when answering papers in Mathematics and in the Physical Sciences will be allowed. Such instruments will not be supplied by the University.

9. Candidates' Mathematical and Physical Tables will be supplied to candidates in groups (I) and (II) of the Examinations, B.A. and B.Sc. Degree Examinations.

10. Candidates are required to present themselves with their own pens. Candidates may bring into the examination hall their own ink-bottles. They must, however, not only leave ink with answering their answer papers.

11. Particular attention is required to the instructions, regarding rough working and loose sheets of paper printed on the answer books. All rough working must be shown on the left hand page of the answer books themselves. No separate books for rough working will be supplied to candidates. Paper must not be detached from the answer books of candidates. If the ordinary answer books are found insufficient, additional books will be allowed and these should be properly fastened to the answer books.

12. As soon as candidates have finished writing their answers, and wish to give up their answer books, or at the end of the period provided for each particular part of the examination, each should stand up in his place and remain standing until one of the separate clerks has gone up to him and covered his answer book from him.

13. Communications to the Registrar from candidates requesting information relating to the results of examinations will not receive attention until after the publication of the results in the Port St. George Gazette. Answers of letters, however, will be communicated by telegraph, if prepaid.

14. The hall tickets of candidates sitting for the examination at Madras will be valid for distribution at the Institute of Arts from 4 p.m. before the date of each examination. Candidates sitting for the examination at centres other than Madras should apply to the Chief Superintendent at the respective centres for their hall tickets.

Candidates appearing at centres where they are not known must be prepared to satisfy the Chief Superintendent of such centres as to their identity.

Bills introduced in the Council of State and Legislative Assembly, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council and Assembly and Bills published under Rule 14 of the Indian Legislative Rules.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to provide for the abolition of the punishment of transportation in respect of criminal offences was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 2nd July 1913—

1. The undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill to provide for the abolition of the punishment of transportation in respect of criminal offences was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers noted in the margin, and have now the honour to submit the following preliminary Report.

2. Several of the opinions which we have had to receive, including those received from the Governments of Madras and Bombay, indicate the Bill, in the first place, as not proceeding on any definite principle for the determination of punishment to be applied to transportation, but, in the second place, as perpetuating and reinforcing a system of rigorous imprisonment for lengthy terms which is not in accordance with principles of modern penology. One of our colleagues Colonel Sir Henry Stanger, has also, after an exhaustive study of the subject, developed a proposal which is based on certain arguments—

3. After long and careful consideration of the matter, we have decided that these arguments are well-founded. We think that, so long as punishment is limited to the two extreme forms, viz., rigorous and simple, as it were, under the Indian Penal Code, it is practically impossible by an individual consideration of each criminal's conduct for the imposition of a punishment to arrive at any satisfactory assessment of the existing law. We further consider that the existing law, providing as it does for long terms of rigorous imprisonment, is itself unsatisfactory, and that it should in law in such a way as to extend terms of imprisonment of the kind, would be an undesirable step. We have, therefore, started, at the conclusion that it is necessary, in order to replace sentences of transportation by sentences of imprisonment of equal or nearly equal length, to provide the repair of imprisonment, and further that this cannot be done without a review of the criminal law of punishment by amendment. For example, if a maximum term of 34 years' unconditionally rigorous imprisonment is now to be fixed up into one or more grades of imprisonment leading in degree according to the length of the total term, it might well be found necessary to increase the maximum term which may be awarded.

4. We have considered the possibility of abolishing, for the present sentence of transportation, a sentence of penal servitude, and we think that in some respects legislation on these lines might be a satisfactory solution. We are, however, unable to recommend such a proposal by reason of the fact that conditions of servitude would be required for the establishment of penal settlements which would necessarily be altogether distinct from jails, and we are, therefore, of opinion that the only practical solution at present is a system developed on the lines suggested by our colleagues, the Hon. Judges, in his case, which we reproduce as an appendix to our report.

5. We fully realize that the adoption of our report will entail delay, as it is impossible to revise the whole of our present system of imprisonment except when a radical reorganization with Penal Settlements is agreed to the present and problems involved in such a proposal. Nevertheless, we think that the abolition of transportation, highly desirable as it is, is not itself a sufficient justification for delaying, even temporarily, making some of rigorous imprisonment which are already in existence of those provided in the law of penal servitude.

6. Apart from the necessity of consulting Local Governments, we realize that it would undoubtedly be beyond the scope of our reference to amend the Bill on the lines proposed by us without further consultation. We have, accordingly, not attempted to amend the Bill at present, and we recommend that it be not presented with pending the consultation with Local Governments which we have advised, and that as soon as possible thereafter the Bill should be carried out as again presented before the Legislature.

7. The Bill was published in the Gazette of 26th, dated the 16th September 1925.

APPENDIX TO THE REPORT.

NOTE ON THE ABOLITION OF TRANSPORTATION BILL.

Into the object of this Bill is to, not to remove the power of the Parliament for any offence now punishable with transportation, but to substitute for transportation an equivalent punishment of some other term. Our first duty therefore is to find this equivalent.

The only possible form of substitution is punishment by imprisonment. At present imprisonment, as a punishment for crime, is of two descriptions, namely (A) rigorous and (B) simple. The former is defined in section 55 of the Indian Penal Code as imprisonment "with hard labour." The latter is not defined, and it is commonly supposed to be mere confinement without any kind of compulsory work.

Under the Indian Penal Code transportation may be awarded for life, or for any shorter term not less than 2 years, except under sections 124A and 124B, where no minimum is prescribed. For sentences of not less than 2 years I divide this form of punishment into (1) Life transportation and (2) Term transportation.

Originally Life transportation was intended to be transportation for the natural life of the convict, but for the particular purpose of transferring convicts to remote stations of settlement, e.g. under section 114 or section 111, Indian Penal Code. It was, accordingly, covered by section 57 of that Code that Life transportation should be so used as equivalent to transportation for twenty years. It has now become the general practice to regard and treat Life transportation as transportation for twenty years for all purposes, and the convict who has long enough been usually discharged upon completion of the term, and even earlier when they even remission by good conduct. Therefore, for the purpose of comparison of punishments, in this note I shall assume Life transportation to denote transportation for twenty years.

The author of the Bill before us has made no attempt to introduce any modification of the two descriptions of imprisonment above mentioned, nor has he proposed substitution of punishment for transportation upon any scale of equivalence, nor provided even any general principle. The sub-committee made as well as it could (see the report) and though we find in the Statement of Objects and Reasons that "It has been desired to retain generally the views of the Legislature as to the relative gravity of each offence when it enacted the law in question," we find substantial, not in some cases, reproducible reduction of the maximum sentence now in force. The proposals in the Bill in regard to sections 75, 121A, 307, 354, 355 and 356 are examples of unjustifiable reduction. This treatment of the subject has evoked a considerable amount of criticism and controversy, as will be apparent from a perusal of the opinions on the Bill which have been received, amongst a number of points has been pointed out as follows.

There can be no doubt, in my opinion, that the focus of the Bill is defective in this respect, and that it is necessary to adopt a basis of equivalence between transportation and imprisonment. For our these mandates are to be considered, and designed to change only the form and not the substance of the punishment provided by law. The Rowley Government have suggested the following scale:—

20 years transportation =	15 years rigorous imprisonment.
15 years transportation =	7 years rigorous imprisonment.
7 years transportation =	4 years rigorous imprisonment.
5 years transportation =	3 years rigorous imprisonment.

For reasons which will appear hereafter this scale does not contained itself to me as satisfactory. Several reports seem to have assumed with confidence that life transportation, taken as transportation for twenty years, is equivalent to rigorous imprisonment for fourteen years. Exactly this assumption is made in section 91 of the Indian Penal Code, which reserves power to Government to commute a sentence of transportation for life "for imprisonment of either kind for fourteen years." I do not think that the Legislature intended to suppose that transportation for life was to be measured in severity by imprisonment of either kind for fourteen years. The authors of the Indian Penal Code expressly stated in their Report that transportation was a form of punishment more severe than imprisonment, and the treatment of the two forms in that Code and in section 485 of the Criminal Procedure Code, 1898, indicates that the Legislature intended that view, according to which a term of imprisonment could equal in severity a sentence of transportation for life.

In my opinion no such inference can be drawn from anything in the Indian Penal Code or other British Indian enactments as to the scale or standard by which the Legislature compares transportation as a measure of punishment with imprisonment. The alternatives of imprisonment and transportation given in various sections are no guide. So far as life transportation is concerned we have a wide divergence in such alternatives in the Indian Penal Code. In one case there is no alternative—section 221; in other cases we have death (section 222); rigorous imprisonment for ten years (section 141), imprisonment of either description for fourteen years (section 223); for ten years (section 224); for seven years (section 477), and for three years (section 225-A).

As regards Term transportation we have section 30, Indian Penal Code, which, excluding cases of abettment and attempt in which its application depends upon the offence abetted or attempted, is directly applicable in 163 cases. Under that section imprisonment of either description (and therefore of equal severity) for any term not less than seven years may be converted into any term of transportation from seven years up to the maximum term of imprisonment provided for the offence concerned. But we consider this in the light of an illustration. A and B have been found guilty and adjudged severally. A with rigorous imprisonment and B with simple imprisonment for seven years. Under section 30 both these offenders may be transported for fourteen years. It is clear that so long as transport is commuted by the Legislature of transportation with imprisonment can be inferred from such provisions.

There is no offence in the Indian Penal Code punishable with simple imprisonment only for more than the two years provided for an offence under section 141. In every case to which section 30 can be applied rigorous imprisonment appears as a form of punishment. In practice, however, under that section the scales have formerly equalled transportation as an alternative for an equal term of rigorous imprisonment. There is nothing for or against this practice in the British law; but the existence of the practice may have influenced the author of the IPC in substituting rigorous imprisonment for transportation in every place. But, notwithstanding the view held by the authors of the Indian Penal Code and adopted by the Legislature as above noted, it seems now to be generally admitted that under present-day conditions imprisonment with continuous hard labour for seven years and upwards is punishment of far greater severity than transportation for an equal term. On the other hand, any balancing of simple imprisonment with a term of transportation can be achieved only with the help of a very flexible imagination.

It appears to me that transportation is a form of punishment which gradually becomes in severity with time, as the convict becomes accustomed to his daily, brutal misery and despair being relieved, first, by spicing and then by sweetening in the new life, at by the prospect of approaching release to the civil life grown accustomed to and earned in labour, and by good conduct some increased liberty of movement, enjoyment of hot or more congenial climates, and other advantages not privileges of separation. From isolation and friends is comforted by the absence of the most despised men whom contact with them would have kept alive. Thus a sentence of transportation, while severely punitive for a time, gradually becomes reformatory.

I think, therefore, that a sentence of rigorous imprisonment for a few years, followed by simple imprisonment for the rest of the term, the severity of the former being graduated towards the latter, would be the nearest equivalent to the same term of transportation. Section 40 of the Indian Penal Code empowers every Court which sentences an offender to imprisonment to direct "that any part of such imprisonment shall be rigorous and the rest simple"; but in a forensic and judicial experience extending over 40 years I have never seen such a simple sentence or when this direction was imposed; the probable reason for this omission being the wide gulf which divides the real and not general estimate of the humane justice and appropriate use of the two forms of imprisonment to which section 40 refers. Moreover, I believe that Courts have never felt themselves called upon to make any serious attempt to obtain comparison between a sentence of imprisonment and a sentence of transportation. Where section 40 occurs in the Indian Penal Code, the two ideas of has been reflected by other factors, such as the desirability of securing the maximum commuted from the source of their labour, because imprisonment had failed as a deterrent, or because the Kangoon Government had insisted that the scale was crowded and a more liberal use of the power to transport was expedient. The remedy for establishing a standard for the seven alternatives of the two forms of punishment seems to be the best met with the difficulty, and, in my opinion, no commencing sentence therefore can be fixed as the law now stands. If I am right in my view as to the "indefinite" of transportation as the transport, then we can only obtain a satisfactory equivalent by having a more graduated scale of severity in imprisonment than is provided by the 20 extremes stated by section 94 of the Indian Penal Code.

Government; but the establishment of penal settlements into which prisoners who have served their respective terms of rigorous imprisonment, are to be transferred for purposes of reform, would seem to be most desirable.

The next main feature of the Bill which seems open to criticism is the arrangement of the two schedules. As to this I agree with the suggestion made by His Excellency the Governor of the United Provinces in China in the third paragraph of the letter from the Deputy Secretary, United Provinces, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department. In the Bill as first introduced, these two schedules out of a single section is partly in one schedule, and partly in the other. Such a mixture if carried will place a prisoner in one or not out confusion, especially in the subordinate Courts.

There is a consensus of opinion with which I agree that in the case of soldiers, punishable under section 120A, Indian Penal Code, the Bill proposes a maximum punishment which is an equivalent to the existing punishment and will be most adequate in measure which there will be no reason where the period of the sentence for a long term without hard labour being imposed, may be as desirable for him as for the community at large and the State. There are many other sentences for transportation set out in the Bill which are somewhat open to criticism on other grounds, but I need not labour them in this case. If my remarks for substitution of imprisonment for transportation or on the basis of an approved mode are accepted the amendment of such section will be a simple and unimportant matter, while the Bill schedules will be "accepted". If these proposals are not accepted, then each single item in those schedules will have to be considered in Committee upon its merits, and discussion here would be premature. All that has to be done if will be a great extension to members of a statement can be prepared and printed showing (1) the existing law and (2) the proposed amendments thereof in two columns vertically side by side, with a third column left blank for writing recommendations approved by the Committee. Similar statements with the third column filled in could afterwards be served to Members of the Assembly for purposes of the debate on the Bill.

I am aware that an adoption of the proposals I have made, or of anything resembling them, will entail a revision of the whole Bill, but I believe that this will demand less time and labour than a consideration in detail, considered by any body of equals, both in Committee and in the General Assembly, of every section dealt with in the two schedules now appended to the Bill. With a mode for guidance, which need not be incorporated in the Bill, and with general provisions set out in the body of the Bill, the substitution of sentences would become consequential and largely beyond the range of controversy.

(5) that he intends, if the application is granted to reside in British India or to enter or continue in the service of the Crown or of the Government.

Provided that nothing in clause (4) or clause (5) shall apply in the case of a woman who was a British subject previously to her marriage to a person not a British subject and whose husband has died or whose marriage has been dissolved.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent the grant of a certificate of naturalization to any person to whom a certificate of naturalization has been issued under the Indian Naturalization Act, 1853.

4. (2) Every application for a certificate of naturalization shall be in writing and shall state, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the applicant, his age, place of birth, place of residence, and whether he is a subject of the United Kingdom, and full particulars respecting the qualifications of the applicant in respect of the matters referred to in clause (1) of article 2, and shall also state whether or not any application by the applicant for the grant of a certificate of naturalization under the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1948, or the Indian Naturalization Act, 1923, or this Act, has at any time previously been rejected, and whether or not any such certificate has been granted to the applicant, and whether or not any such certificate granted to him has been revoked.

(3) Every such application shall be signed by the applicant and shall be accompanied by an affidavit sworn by him certifying that the statements contained therein are true to the best of his knowledge and belief.

(4) The Local Government shall satisfy itself as to the truth of the statements contained in the application, and for this purpose may resort to its usual powers of inquiry, if any, and may require such further evidence, if any, as may be necessary, as it thinks necessary.

5. (3) The grant of a certificate of naturalization shall be in the absolute discretion of the Local Government, and no appeal shall lie from any refusal to grant any such certificate.

6. Every person to whom a certificate of naturalization has been granted shall, within thirty days from the date of the grant thereof, take and subscribe the following oath, namely:—

"I, A. B. C. of

do hereby swear (or affirm) that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to His Majesty the King, Emperor of India, His Heirs and Successors".

Provided that the Local Government may excuse the time allowed under this section in any case in which it is satisfied that failure to take and subscribe the oath within that time was due to sufficient cause.

7. (1) The certificate of naturalization shall have effect until the person to whom it is granted has taken the oath prescribed by section 6, but upon the taking and subscribing of the certificate and taking of the oath, such person, his wife or any child of any such person who has been included in the certificate under sub-section (2) of section 5, shall, when in British India, be deemed to be British subjects and be entitled to all the rights, privileges and capacities of a British subject born within British India, except such rights, privileges or capacities, if any, as may have been withheld from them respectively by the certificate, and shall when in British India be subject to all the obligations, duties and liabilities of a British subject.

(2) When a certificate of naturalization has been granted to any person, any wife or child included in, and any child thereafter born to, such person shall, if she or he is not a British subject and if such person is deceased at the date of the marriage or birth, as the case may be, retain any rights, privileges or capacities of a British subject under this Act, be entitled to the same rights, privileges and capacities, and be subject to the same obligations, duties and liabilities, as which such person should if was at that date entitled and subject.

8. (1) Where the Local Government of the province in which a person to whom a certificate of naturalization has been granted under this Act, or the Indian Naturalization Act, 1923, resides, or, in the case of any such person who is not for the time being resident in British India, the Local Government of, by which such a certificate was granted to such person, is satisfied that the certificate was obtained by false representation or fraud or by concealment of material circumstances, or that the person to whom the certificate has been granted has shown himself by act or speech to be disloyal to His Majesty, the Local Government shall, by order in writing, revoke the certificate.

(2) Without prejudice to the foregoing provisions, such Local Government shall, by order in writing, revoke such a certificate of naturalization as is shown in any case in which it is satisfied that the person to whom the certificate was granted—

(a) has, during any war in which His Majesty is engaged, voluntarily aided or communicated with the enemy, or with a subject of an enemy State, or been engaged in, or associated with, any business which is to his knowledge disloyal to or in such manner as to assist the enemy in such war; or

(b) has, within five years of the date of the grant of the certificate, been sentenced by any Court in His Majesty's dominions to transportation or to penal servitude, or to imprisonment for a term of not less than twelve months, or to pay a fine of not less than one hundred rupees; or

(c) was not of good character at the date of the grant of the certificate; or

(d) has since the date of the grant of the certificate been, for a period of not less than seven years, voluntarily resident out of His Majesty's dominions otherwise than as a representative of a British subject, or as a company carrying on business, or of an institution established, or His Majesty's dominions, or in the service of the Crown, and has not maintained substantial connection with His Majesty's dominions; or

(a) security, according to the law of a state, at war with His Majesty, a subject of that state; and that the maintenance of the certificate is not confined to the said goal.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to deprive a person of his citizenship by any Local Government of a state as granted by another Local Government, without the sanction of that other Local Government, or, if that Local Government refuses to consent, of the Governor-General in Council.

(c) The Local Government may, if it thinks fit, before making an order under this section, refer the case for such inquiry as it may think fit, and, in any case in which subsection (1) or clause (a), clause (b) or clause (c) of subsection (2) applies, the Local Government shall, by order given to, or sent by post to the last known address of, the holder of the certificate, give him an opportunity of showing that the case be referred for such inquiry and, if the holder is present in accordance with the notice, the Local Government shall refer the case for inquiry accordingly.

(d) An inquiry under this section shall be held by such person or persons, and in such manner as the Local Government may direct in each case.

(e) Where a certificate is revoked under this section, the notification shall have effect from such date as may be directed by the Local Government, and thereupon the certificate shall be given up and cancelled; and any person who, within reasonable notice the holder of the certificate shall be given him, fails to give up his certificate within any notice from the aforesaid date, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees.

(f) For the purpose of this section, any person of eighteen years of age or upwards who has acquired any of the rights, privileges or capacities of naturalization under sub-section (1) of section 4 or sub-section (2) of section 5, by reason of the grant to his parent of a certificate of naturalization, shall be deemed to be a person to whom a certificate of naturalization has been granted.

Effect of revocation of certificate. 6. (1) Where a certificate is revoked under section 5, the former holder thereof shall cease to be deemed to be a British subject.

(2) On each revocation, the Local Government may, by order in writing, direct that the wife and minor children (for any of them) of the person whose certificate is revoked shall cease to be deemed to be British subjects; but, where no such direction is made, the status of the wife and minor children of the person whose certificate is revoked shall not be affected by the revocation. Provided that, in the case of a wife who was at birth a British subject, no such order as aforesaid shall be made, unless the Local Government is satisfied that, if she had held a certificate of naturalization in her own right, the certificate could properly have been revoked under section 5, and the provisions of this section as to returning cover for inquiry shall apply to the making of any such order as they apply to the revocation of a certificate.

Declaration of allegiance. 10. (1) A declaration of allegiance in such manner as may be prescribed by statute made under this Act may be made—

(a) by any person to whom a certificate of naturalization has been granted under this Act, or under the Indian Naturalization Act, 1914; or

(b) within one year of his attaining majority, by any child who has acquired any of the rights, privileges or capacities of naturalization under sub-section (1) of section 4 or sub-section (2) of section 5; or

(c) within six months from the date of the presentation of a certificate under section 5, or of the death of, or of the dissolution of his marriage with, the holder of any such certificate as is referred to, by the wife of the person whose certificate has been revoked, or who has died, or whose marriage with her has been dissolved, as the case may be.

(2) Where a declaration of allegiance has been made in the manner aforesaid, the person making the same, and the wife of any such person, and any children of any such person who are minors and are not by birth British subjects, shall cease to be deemed to be British subjects.

31. Every person making an inquiry under the section of a Local Government under sub-section (1) of section 4, and every person appointed to hold an inquiry under sub-section (2) of section 5, shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of the Indian Penal Code, and shall, for the purpose of such inquiry, have the same powers as are vested in a Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, when trying a suit, in respect of the following rules, namely:—

(a) summoning the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;

(b) compelling the production of documents and

(c) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses; and every such inquiry shall be deemed to be a judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 193 and 194 of the Indian Penal Code.

22. (1) All suits and affidavits for the purpose of this Act shall be sworn before a Magistrate or such other person as may be appointed in this behalf by the Local Government.

(2) The Magistrate or other person by whom an oath of allegiance is administered, under section 4 shall grant to the person making the same a certificate in writing of the having taken and subscribed such oath and of the date of his taking and subscribing the same, and shall forward to the Local Government the said certificate taken and subscribed together with a copy of such certificate.

Power to make rules. 13. (1) The Local Government may, with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, by notification in the local official Gazette, make rules to give effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) In providing and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, in any one—

(a) the form or forms in which certificates of naturalization shall be granted, and the manner in which they shall be recorded;

(b) the manner in which declarations of allegiance shall be made and recorded;

(c) the recording of oaths of allegiance; and

(d) the fees which may be imposed for the issue of any certificate, whether of naturalisation or otherwise, granted under this Act.

18. Nothing contained in this Act shall be deemed to entitle in any of the rights, privileges or franchises of a British subject the child of any person who is himself so entitled, by reason only of the naturalisation of his name in a certificate of naturalisation or a certificate (F) of section 6 or of the grant of a certificate of naturalisation to his parent.

THE SCHEDULE.

ENACTMENTS REPEALED.

(Section 18.)

Year.	No.	Description.	Extent of repeal.
1901	XXX	The Indian Naturalisation Act, 1901 ..	As much as has not been repealed.
1903	XIV	The Indian (East India) Act, 1903 ..	As much of the 8 section as relates to the Indian Naturalisation Act, 1901.
1904	I	The Imperial and General Act, 1904.	As much of the 8 section as relates to the Indian Naturalisation Act, 1901.
1916	XVI	The Indian Naturalisation (Amendment) Act, 1916.	The whole.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The question of the continuance or otherwise of the laws of local naturalisation certificates under the Indian Naturalisation Act, 1901 (XXI of 1901), has been the subject of consideration for some time past in view of the fact that considerable numbers of naturalisation certificates granted under the British Naturalisation and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, under the Indian Act, 1914, while the holder in the person of a British subject throughout the British Empire, whereas a certificate granted under the Indian Naturalisation Act, 1901, entitles the holder to British India only. The British Act provides as one of the conditions precedent to the grant of a certificate of naturalisation the possession of an adequate knowledge of English or, alternatively, of any language which is recognised as an equivalent with the English language. There is, however, no single representative form which can, for the purpose of section 3 (1) of the British Naturalisation and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, be regarded as equivalent to English, and this constitutes an argument for the retention of the Indian Act so as to provide for the requirements of persons resident in India who are unable to talk the language specified in the British Act but who possess an adequate knowledge of a principal vernacular of a part of the Indian Empire. The Indian Act has, however, become obsolete in view of recent developments in the law of naturalisation, and it has, therefore, been decided, after consulting the Local Government, that the present Act should be replaced and replaced by a fresh and consolidated enactment generally on the lines of the British Naturalisation and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, but embodying certain special provisions so as to suit the special conditions existing in India.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 2nd July 1925:—

No. 10 of 1925.

A Bill further to amend the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for certain purposes.

Whereas it is expedient further to amend the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for certain purposes hereinafter appearing; it is hereby enacted as follows:—

V of 1925.

1. This Act may be called the Code of Civil Procedure (Amendment) Act, 1925.

V of 1925.

2. In clause (f) of sub-section (2) of section 80 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, for the word "usually", wherever it occurs, the word "frequently", and for the word "frequently" the word "often", shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under provision (f) of sub-section (2) of section 80 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, the salary or allowances of public officers and servants of railway companies and local authorities while on duty are treated as income for the purpose of attachment of the salary of—

- (1) the whole of the salary, where the salary does not exceed Rs. 20 a month;
- (2) Rs. 10 monthly, where the salary exceeds Rs. 20, but does not exceed Rs. 40 a month; and
- (3) one-half of the salary in any other case.

It is considered that the amount of salary because from attachment should be raised proportionately to the rise in the cost of living on the ground that, when the Code was drafted in 1908, the actual pay of Government servants in almost all departments was low compared with the present rates. It is, therefore, proposed that the limits of Rs. 20 and Rs. 40 in (1) and (2) above should be raised to Rs. 40 and Rs. 80, respectively.

introduced would have this effect. It is accordingly proposed to remove these amendments and to make it clear that, in cases where an appeal lies, the Territorial Magistrate shall take down a memorandum of the examination of the accused person as already provided in sub-section (3A) of section 382, and that a non-appealable case be proved at the examination of the accused and be made. Clause 5 of this Bill gives effect to that.

5. The object of clauses 3 and 4 of the Bill is to give effect to some of the recommendations made by the Indian Law Commission in paragraphs 418, 420 and 421 of their Report. These follow generally the form of these recommendations, and opportunity has been taken to reword the provisions of section 382 of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 2nd July 1923:—

No. 22 of 1923.

A Bill to amend the Indian Territorial Force Act, 1915, and the Auxiliary Force Act, 1919, for certain purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Indian Territorial Force Act, 1915, and the Auxiliary Force Act, 1919, for certain purposes hereinafter appearing; it is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Indian Territorial and Auxiliary Force (Amendment) Act, 1923.

2. In section 14 of the Indian Territorial Force Act, 1915, the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—

“(3) Where an offence punishable under the Indian Army Act, 1911, or, as the case may be, under this Act is committed under sub-section (1), the person so convicted shall be liable to be kept in military custody and tried and punished for such offence under that Act, although he has ceased to be so subject as aforesaid in the manner as he might have been taken into and kept in military custody, tried and punished, if he had continued to be so subject.”

Provided that a such person shall be kept in military custody after he has ceased to belong to the Indian Territorial Force, unless he has been taken into or kept in military custody on account of the offence before the date on which he ceased to be belonging, nor shall he be kept in military custody or be tried or punished for the offence after the expiry of six months from the date, unless his trial had already commenced before such expiry.”

3. Section 31 of the Auxiliary Force Act, 1919, shall be re-enacted as sub-section (1) of section 31, and to that section as so re-enacted the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—

“(2) Where an offence punishable under the Army Act has been committed by any person whilst only so that Act under the provisions of sub-section (1), such person may be taken into and kept in military custody and tried and punished for such offence, although he has ceased to be so subject as aforesaid, in like manner as he might have been taken into and kept in military custody, tried and punished if he had continued to be so subject.”

Provided that a such person shall be kept in military custody after he has ceased to belong to the Auxiliary Force, unless he has been taken into or kept in military custody on account of the offence before the date on which he ceased to be belonging, nor shall he be kept in military custody or be tried or punished for the offence after the expiry of six months from that date, unless his trial had already commenced before such expiry.”

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Persons belonging to the Indian Territorial and Auxiliary Force are subject to military law in the circumstances mentioned in section 31 of the Indian Territorial Force Act, 1915, and section 31 of the Auxiliary Force Act, 1919, respectively. If a person belonging to either Force commits a serious military offence, not negotiable by an ordinary criminal court, towards the end of the period during which he is subject to military law and being in the absence of the trial remaining untried or tried by a non-military law, as the law stands at present, escapes punishment.

The object of this Bill is to supply these defects.

Section of new section 32B, Act of 1911.

4. In Chapter VIII of the said Act, after section 32B the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"32B. (2) Whenever in the course of a trial by court-martial it appears to the Court that the person charged is of sound mind and consequently incapable of making his defence, or that such person committed the act alleged but was by reason of unsoundness of mind incapable of knowing the nature of the act or that it was wrong or contrary to law, the Court shall record a finding accordingly, and the finding of the Court in the case shall be final, and shall not require confirmation, in the prescribed manner.

(3) A confirming officer to whom a case is reported under sub-section (2) may, if he does not confirm the finding, take steps to have the accused person tried by the same or another court-martial for the offence with which he was originally charged.

(4) A confirming officer to whom a case is reported under sub-section (2) and a confirming officer confirming a finding in any case so reported in his shall under the normal power to be kept in custody in the prescribed manner, and shall report the case for the orders of the Governor-General in Council.

(b) if such person is detained under sub-section (4), on a certificate such as is referred to in section 42B of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1908, take steps to have such person tried by the same or another court-martial for the offence with which he was originally charged or, provided that the offence is a civil offence, by a Civil Court.

(7) A copy of every order made by the prescribed officer under sub-section (4) shall forthwith be sent to the Governor-General in Council."

Amendment of section 3, 11, 30 and 32, Act of 1911.

5. In the Indian Army Act, 1911—

(a) in clause (b) of section 3 after the figures "1909" the words and figures "or of section 31A of the Indian Army Act, 1911" shall be added;

(b) in section 11, after the figures "1909" the words and figures "or under section 31B of the Indian Army Act, 1911" shall be inserted;

(c) in sub-section (2) of section 30, after the figures "1909" the words and figures "or under the provisions of section 31A of the Indian Army Act, 1911" shall be inserted; and

(d) in sub-section (2) of section 32, after the figures "1909" the words and figures "or under section 31A of the Indian Army Act, 1911" shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF CONCLUSIONS AND REASONS.

I. Officers, warrant officers and non-commissioned officers of the Royal Air Force are not included in the definition of "officer," "warrant officer" and "non-commissioned officer" contained in section 7 of the Indian Army Act, the Royal Air Force not being in existence when the section was enacted. They are consequently not competent to exercise command over Indian soldiers.

In one of the functions of the Royal Air Force, both in India and in other countries in which Indian troops may be employed, it is to co-operate with troops, it is desired to provide by legislation that officers, warrant officers and non-commissioned officers of the Royal Air Force shall stand in the same relation to Indian soldiers as officers of the Indian Army. An amending provision in respect of British soldiers has been introduced into the Indian Army Act by the insertion in 1916 of section 31A (2A).

II. The Indian Army Act contains no provision by which a document purporting to be a report under the hand of a Chemical Examiner to Government is admissible in evidence before a court-martial. A provision of this kind exists in section 31B of the Criminal Procedure Code, 1908, in regard to other judicial proceedings and, in view of the recommendation on the part of the Legislature that it is (necessary) and so necessary to examine such officers in order to prove their reports, it is now desired to introduce a similar provision into the Indian Army Act, 1911, for purposes of trial by court-martial.

III. Before the amendment of section 30 of the Criminal Code, 1909, by Act XXXVIII of 1920, some legal persons, though inadequate, existed for the purpose of an accused person who had been held by a court-martial to have been insane when he committed the offence for which he was charged or who by reason of insanity was incapable of making his defence. The amendment of section 30, however, has amended such legal provision of this kind as consistently existed. It is accordingly proposed to legislate so as to enable the Revenue Officer to demand, to give directions for the disposal of a person, arrested before a magistrate, who is held to have been liable when he was committed to the custody of which he is charged, or who by reason of insanity is incapable of making his defence. This proposal involves some purely consequential amendments in the Indian Customs Act, 1912 [L of 1912].

REVENUE.

The 15th June 1925.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 2nd July 1925.

No. 21 of 1925.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for certain purposes.

XX of 1925.

Whereas it is expedient further to amend the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, for certain purposes heretofore appearing: It is hereby enacted as follows:—

XX of 1925.

1. This Act may be called the Indian Income-tax (Further Amendment) Act, 1925.

2. In sub-section (4) of section 4 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), for the words "shall be deemed to be profits and gains of the year in which they are received or brought into British India," the following words shall be substituted, namely:—

"shall, if they are received or brought into British India, be deemed to have accrued or arisen in British India and to be profits and gains of the year in which they are so received or brought."

3. After Chapter V of the said Act the following Chapter shall be inserted, namely:—

"CHAPTER VI.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO CERTAIN CLASSES OF SHIPPING.

4(a). The provisions of this Chapter shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the other provisions of this Act, apply for the purpose of the levy and recovery of tax in the case of any person who takes out of British India and carries on business in British India in any year as the owner or charterer of a ship (such person hereinafter in this Chapter being referred to as the principal, unless the Income-tax Officer is satisfied that there is an agent of such principal from whom the tax will be recoverable in the following year under the other provisions of this Act).

4(b). (1) Before the departure from any port in British India of any ship in respect of which the provisions of this Chapter apply, the master of the ship shall prepare and furnish to the Income-tax Officer a return of the full amount paid or payable in the principal, or to any person on his behalf, as agent of the principal, of all the passengers, baggage or goods shipped at that port since the last arrival of the ship thereat.

(2) On receipt of the return, the Income-tax Officer shall assess the amount referred to in sub-section (1), and for this purpose may ask for such accounts or documents as he may require, and notwithstanding the amount so assessed shall be deemed to be the amount of the profits and gains accruing to the principal on account of the carriage of the passengers, baggage and goods shipped at the port.

(3) When the profits and gains have been assessed as aforesaid, the Income-tax Officer shall determine the sum payable as tax thereon at the rate for the year being applicable to the total income of a company, and such sum shall be payable by the master of the ship, and a post-deduction shall not be granted to the ship until the due amount, or other officer duly authorized to grant the same, is satisfied that the tax has been duly paid.

4(c). Nothing in this Chapter shall be deemed to prevent a principal from obtaining, in any year subsequent to the year in which the tax has been assessed as aforesaid, an order from the Income-tax Officer, that an assessment be made of his total income in the particular year, and that the tax payable on the basis thereof be determined in accordance with the other provisions of the Act, and, if so ordered, any such payment as aforesaid shall be treated as a payment in advance of the tax and the difference between the sum so paid, and the amount of tax finally payable by him shall be paid by him or refunded to him, as the case may be."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

There doubt has been expressed whether sub-section (4) of section 4 of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1922, fully covers the intention of the Act that the profits and gains of a business accruing as arising out of British India in a person resident in British India should be assessed when received in or brought into, British India. Clause 3 of the Bill is intended to place the matter beyond dispute.

It likewise seems urged by the statement to impose tax of unassessed shipping belonging to, or chartered by, persons or companies whose principal place of business is not in British India and who have no regular agents in British India when the tax will be recoverable in the following year. Clause 4 of the Bill accordingly makes special provision for the assessment of the profits and gains of such shipping.

A Bill to amend the Act which provides for the levy of a cess on indigo exported from British India.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Act which provides for the levy of a cess on indigo exported from British India; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Encl. 1024 and amendment. 1. (A) This Act may be called the Indigo Cess (Repealing) Act, 1923.

(B) It shall come into force on the first day of August, 1923.

Encl. 1024. 2. The Indigo Cess Act, 1918, and the Indigo Cess (Amendment) Act, 1921, Encl. of 1924
V of 1921. are hereby repealed.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under the Indigo Cess Act III of 1918, as amended by Act V of 1921, a cess of Rs. 1 and annas 8 per mow on all indigo produced in India and exported is levied with the object of meeting the cost of such research as the Government-General in Council may consider advisable for promoting research in the interests of the indigo industry in India. The main object of expenditure from the cess has been the investigation carried out by the Imperial Indigo Research Council at Poona whose appointment was originally sanctioned by the Secretary of State in 1918. These investigations have now been practically completed with the exception of the problem of histological formation in the stripping vat, and in May 1923 on the completion of the Indigo Research Council's period of engagement, its appointment was terminated. The remainder of its work has been and will be by the Scientific Indigo Service of the Agricultural Research Institute, Poona, and there is therefore no justification for the continuance of the cess. It is accordingly proposed to repeal the Indigo Cess Act with effect from the 1st August 1923, and to relieve the export balance of the cess—estimated at Rs. 10,00,000 (one crore) on the 1st April last—to meet the cost of completing the research work at Poona.

Encl. 1024.
The Bill was introduced.

M. S. D. BUTLER.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 2nd July 1923:—

No. 26 of 1923.

A Bill further to amend the Indian Paper Currency Act, 1923.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Paper Currency Act, 1923; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Encl. 1024. 1. This Act may be called the Indian Paper Currency (Amendment) Act, 1923.

Encl. 1024. 2. To clause (a) of sub-section (5) of section 25 of the Indian Paper Currency Act, 1923 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), after the word "purchased" the following words shall be added, namely:—

"or, in the case of notes obtained by melting down silver coin issued under the authority of the Government-General in Council, at the rate of one rupee for 100 grains Troy of fine silver."

Encl. 1024. 3. To sub-section (2) of section 26 of the said Act the following definition shall be added, namely:—

"By melting—For the purposes of this sub-section, the term melting in the purchase of silver by India includes melting down silver coin issued under the authority of the Government-General in Council shall be deemed to be the value of the balance calculated at the rate of one rupee for 100 grains Troy of fine silver."

Encl. 1024. 4. In section 29 of the said Act, for the word "fifty" the words "one hundred and twenty" shall be substituted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

In order to meet the seasonal demand for an expansion of the currency, greater was taken, when the Indian Paper Currency Act was amended in 1920 (section 25 of the Consolidating Act X of 1920) to issue currency notes up to an amount not exceeding 8 annas of value against substantial bills of exchange, the then of bills against which the notes were to be issued, and the provision to be adopted being determined by rules framed by the Government-General in Council. From time to time it has been pointed out that the issue of notes under the above provision shall be against actual bills of exchange and drafts, that they shall be issued only on the request of the Imperial Bank of India and that they shall bear interest at a rate not below 5 per cent. The experience of two years' working of the above provision and the difficulty with which the Bank resorted to the beginning of the last season in cash of those years have shown that the object of those provisions were not being fully achieved, that the aim should be to anticipate and prevent monetary stringency and not merely to relieve it and that for this purpose facilities should be afforded for making advances seasonally available when there is a genuine trade demand for it as a seasonal and temporary convenience and for automatically reducing it when that demand ceases. Accordingly it is considered desirable to modify not only the maximum limit which is prescribed in the Act but also the conditions under which these loans may be granted. It is accordingly proposed to amend section 25 of the Act so as to raise the maximum limit from 8 to 25 annas. Section 4 of the Bill is designed to effect this change.

The Government of India propose further, if the Bill is passed, to modify the rules framed under section 20 of the Act of 1913 so as to provide that where local currency at all be admissible on such an issue the Bank shall rise to 2 per cent, that the amount of issue which should be permissible at 2 per cent should not exceed 5 crores, that smaller amounts should be admissible at 1 and 3 per cent, and that interest on the loans shall be payable at 5 per cent subject to a maximum of 5 per cent. It is not proposed for the present to make any change in the form of security which is required for these loans.

3. The opportunity has been taken to propose certain minor amendments of sections 18 (1) (a) and 19 (1) of the Act so as to allow the holding of bullion derived from melting uncurrent and withdrawn silver coins as part of the Paper Currency Reserve. Under the present working of these sections silver coins in the Reserve have to be melted at the place in respect of which it was purchased, but as this price cannot be determined in respect of silver coins withdrawn from circulation, they could not be melted and placed in the Reserve. We have had to be accepted even when, at the present time, the stocks of rupees are a high and it is desirable to accede to the working of the new rule. In accordance, the proposed sections 18 and 19 of the Bill will enable such bullion to be included in the Reserve, the value for this purpose being calculated at the rate at which rupees for each 100 grams of silver coins, which is the amount of fine silver contained in a silver rupee.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill further to amend the Indian Stamp Act, 1913, was presented to the Legislative Assembly on the 18th July 1933:—

We, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee, to which the Bill further to amend the Indian Stamp Act, 1913, was referred, have considered the Bill and the papers laid thereon, and have the honour to submit this our Report, with

1. Paper No. 1. the Bill as amended by us amended therein.

2. Paper No. 2. the Bill as amended by us amended therein.

3. Particularly the only part of the Bill which calls for special consideration is the clause which provides for the enhancement of the stamp duty on promissory notes. We are impressed by the relevance of opinions in the effect that such an enhancement which not only is temporary, but might also have the effect of raising the amount of the stamp duty on promissory notes. These opinions are based on the fact and are well founded in fact. It is to be noted that the Indian Stamp Act, 1913, a promissory note which is not duly stamped must be returned to the drawer for any purpose or in any circumstances. Which, therefore, we are, by a majority, of opinion that the enhancement of the stamp duty on promissory notes is probably, we are at the same time of opinion that the rigour of the above-mentioned provision should be relaxed, at least temporarily. We do not recommend a permanent relaxation, because it appears that the exemption which is made in the case of promissory notes to the rule that documents not duly stamped may be voided in case of payment of a penalty is a provision of very long standing both in the English and the Indian law, and that to do away permanently with this provision would not be in the interest of the public. We have, therefore, amended the Bill so as to provide that promissory notes payable on demand which have been executed in British India during the year following the date on which the Bill may be expected to become law, and on which a duty of five annas only has been paid, shall be exempted from this liability. A similar amendment appears to be logically necessary in regard to the provisions of sections 33, 40 and 41. We have the further pleasure to provide that in penalty shall be incurred under section 32 of the Act for the execution of such a promissory note as is described above.

4. At present cheques, drafts, etc., letters of allotment of shares, letters of credit and similar (that is to say, the documents respectively referred to in Articles Nos. 18, 24, 37 and 38 of Schedule I to the Indian Stamp Act, 1913) being chargeable with a duty of one anna, are not subject to the benefit of the provisions of sections 33, 40 and 41, nor can they be produced in evidence, even on payment of a penalty, under section 45. In order, therefore, to leave the law as it stands with regard to these documents, chargeable with a higher rate of duty, we think it proper that the provisions of the above-mentioned sections should not be applied to them. It is to be observed that the penalty for not stamping or for not stamping these documents still remains.

4. We have altered the order in which Articles 42 and 43 were dealt with in the Bill as introduced.

MOTION OF DISSENT.

I am unable to agree with the majority as to the expediency of enhancing the duty on Provisionary Notes payable on demand. Objections to this proposal have been very widespread, it not universal. All those who are in touch with business conditions in rural areas and among the smaller trading classes are opposed to this provision. Indian business circles have strongly protested against it. None of those who do not object to the increase of duty the majority say, at any rate, a very large number, are in favour of increasing the percentage of interest 45 of the Act for the purpose of raising definitely stamped provisionary notes.

The objection to the enhancement of the duty on Provisionary Notes payable on demand are:—
1. That it will take a very long time before the alteration in the law comes to the knowledge of the agricultural and other classes among whom this kind of instrument is extensively in use and that in the meanwhile great inconvenience, loss and hardship will be caused to the people using such instruments.

2. That in view of the extent to which demand Provisionary Notes are used for the purpose of financing trade in parts where no bar financial facilities are not available, the economic facilities now performed by Provisionary Notes will be seriously impaired.

3. That the removal of Provisionary Notes from the class of instruments chargeable with the duty of annuities will diminish them to the purview of the use of adhesive stamps under section 11 of the Stamp Act.

4. That owing to the difficulty of securing non-adhesive stamps and to the enhancement of the duty even those who are aware of the change in the law may largely prefer to evade, which may seriously affect the anticipated increase of annuities and is not likely to be checked even by more frequent recourse to criminal prosecution.

5. That the invalidity attached to instruments so extensively in use and the increased frequency of prosecutions must give rise to widespread dissimulation among the people.

The temporary relaxation of the rigour of section 35 of the Stamp Act as proposed by the majority will not meet the requirements of the case.

In my opinion the enhancement of the duty on Provisionary Notes is in the interests of the country quite as objectionable as, if not more so than, the enhancement of the duty on Cheques.

P. S. SIVASWAMY AYER,
C. S. SUBRAMANIAM.

I agree.

The following Report of the Select Committee on the Bill to consolidate and amend the law relating to the contribution to British India of alien resident persons was presented to the Legislature Assembly on the 19th July 1929:—

We, the undersigned, Members of the Select Committee to which the Bill is consolidated and amend the law relating to the contribution to British India of alien resident therein was referred, have considered the Bill and have now the honor to submit this our Report, with the Bill as amended by us and thereon.

2. Of such amendments as we have made to the Bill, the majority are of a purely drafting nature, and we propose to deal only with those which appear to us to require special mention as involving changes of substance of any importance.

3. Clause 2.—We have amended the definition of "British subject" which, as it stood in the Bill, did not include persons to whom certificates of naturalization have been granted under the British Naturalization and Status of Aliens Act, 1914, or persons who have become subjects of the Empire by reason of acquisition of territory.

As regards the definition, we have considered the propriety of inserting in the Bill a definition regarding the substance of the definitions of "British subject" and "naturalized British subject" which are contained in the British Act. In view, however, of the possibility of subsequent amendments to the latter, we have decided not to do so, but to recommend that these definitions be reproduced from the British Act as they stand in the official edition of the Bill when it becomes law, and we have secured an enactment that effect will be due course be given to this recommendation.

As it is possible that certain persons desirous of obtaining Indian naturalization under the Act may be subject to the Indian Majority Act, 1875, we think it advisable to provide that persons so subject shall be governed by the provisions of that Act, and we have added the following "in lieu" in sub-clause (c) of the clause accordingly. The substitution adopted is that contained in the Proforma and Administration Act, 1921.

4. Clause 3.—We desire it to be made clear that a minor, whether he is under guardianship, or not, shall not be entitled to the point of a certificate of naturalization in his own name, and we have accordingly inserted a clause making a provision to that effect at the beginning of sub-clause (d) of the clause.

5. Clause 4.—We think that the applicant for a certificate of naturalization under the Act should also be obliged to state whether there is any pending application made by him for a grant of naturalization under the British Act, and we have provided accordingly.

6. The Bill was published in the Gazette of India, dated the 7th July 1929.

7. We think that the Bill has not been altered as to require repatriation, and we recommend that it be passed as now amended.

(F) On such revocation, the Local Government may, by order in writing, direct that the wife and minor children (or any of them) of the person whose certificate is revoked shall cease to be deemed to be British subjects; but, where no such direction is made, the status of the wife and minor children of the person whose certificate is revoked shall not be affected by the revocation.

Provided that, in the case of a wife who was at birth a British subject, no such order as aforesaid shall be made unless the Local Government is satisfied that, if she had held a certificate of naturalization in her own right, the certificate could properly have been revoked under section 8, and the provisions of that section as to refusing entry for inquiry shall apply to the making of any such order as they apply to the revocation of a certificate.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 15th July 1923:—
No. 57 of 1923.

A Bill to amend the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

IN ENACTMENT WHEREOF, I, the Governor-General in Council, have caused this Bill to be printed, and I have signed it, and I have caused the following provisions of it to be printed:—

1. This Act may be called the Indian Lunacy (Amendment) Act, 1923.
2. To section 22 of the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912, the following provision shall be added, namely:—
"Provided that no reception order shall continue to have effect—
(a) after the expiry of thirty days from the date on which it was made, unless the lunatic has been admitted to the place mentioned therein within that period, or
(b) after the discharge, under the provisions of this Act, of the lunatic from such place or from any asylum to which he may have been removed."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It has been brought to notice that under the Indian Lunacy Act, 1912, clause (a) present, a person, once the subject of a reception order for detention in a mental hospital, remains permanently subject to it, and may be taken to a mental hospital and confined therein legally at any subsequent period of his life, notwithstanding that the order may not have been acted on for a considerable period of time, and that the person may have been discharged from such a hospital, or may have been removed from the mental disorder which constituted the basis of the order. This was never the intention of the law and in practice the district has never made any provision of a case, but a law inadvertently exists and it is considered desirable to remove it. The Bill proposes to remedy the defect by amending section 22 of the Act so as to render a reception order invalid after thirty days if it has not been acted upon or, if it has been acted upon within that period, after the discharge of the person to whom it relates from the detention authorized by it.

W. M. BAILEY.

The 6th July 1923.

The following Bill was introduced in the Legislative Assembly on the 15th July 1923:—
No. 58 of 1923.

A Bill to amend the Cutchi Menace Act, 1920.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Cutchi Menace Act, 1920; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

IN ENACTMENT WHEREOF, I, the Governor-General in Council, have caused this Bill to be printed, and I have signed it, and I have caused the following provisions of it to be printed:—
1. This Act may be called the Cutchi Menace (Amendment) Act, 1923.
2. (1) Section 2 of the Cutchi Menace Act, 1920 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act), shall be re-numbered as subsection (1) of section 2, and in that sub-section as re-numbered by the words "Any Cutchi Menace who—
(a) has attained the age of majority; and
(b) is resident in British India," the following shall be substituted, namely:—
"Any person who satisfies the prescribed authority—
(a) that he is a Cutchi Menace and is the person whom he represents himself to be; or
(b) that he is competent to swear within the meaning of section 11 of the Indian Oath Act, 1872; and
(c) that he is resident in British India."
(2) To the said section the following sub-section shall be added, namely:—
(3) Where the prescribed authority refuses to accept a declaration under sub-section (1), the person desiring to make the same may apply to such officer as the Local Government may, by general or special order, appoint in this behalf, and such officer may, if he is satisfied that the applicant is entitled to make the declaration, order the prescribed authority to accept the same."

3. Sub-section (1) of section 3 of the said Act shall be re-numbered as subsection (1), and for the said sub-section (1) of the said section the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—
(1) The Local Government may make rules to carry into effect the purposes of this Act.
(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—
(a) for prescribing the authority before whom and the form in which declarations under this Act shall be made;
(b) for prescribing the fees to be paid for the filing of declarations and for the attendance at private sessions of any person in the discharge of his duties under this Act; and for prescribing the times at which such fees shall be payable and the manner in which they shall be levied."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Under section 2 of the Cutchi Menace Act, 1920 (XIV of 1920), any Cutchi Menace who has attained the age of majority and is resident in British India may, by declaration in the prescribed form and filed before the prescribed authority, declare that he desires to live in the bosom of the Act, and thereafter the declaration and all his minor children and their descendants shall in so far as they are not otherwise governed by the Mohammedan law. The Government of Bombay have brought to notice certain defects in the working of the Act. In particular there is no provision for (1) the identification of the declarant, and (2) a power to refuse to register a declaration in any case or on appeal against refusal, and (3) the levy of fees. The object of this Bill is to remove these defects.

W. M. BAILEY.
